ANNUAL REVIEW AND FESTIVAL 2010

The 2010 Annual Review and Festival will be held at the University of Leicester over the weekend 9-11 April 2010. The Conference Centre is adjacent to the beautiful and tranquil Harold Martin Botanic Gardens which extend for sixteen acres around the halls of residence grounds. The weekend is an excellent opportunity for finding out what has been done within the Federation throughout the year and to meet members from all over the country who you would not normally have chance to meet.

Full details on booking are attached.

For those not wishing to travel on the Saturday morning, there is the option to arrive on the Friday evening.

The format for Day 1 (Saturday) will be Annual Review in the morning, followed by talks in the afternoon. We are pleased to confirm that Prof David Peters of the BHMA will be our speaker this year.

Day 2 (Sunday) will, as usual, be a series of workshops, which are offered by delegates. Attendance at workshops is free for Festival delegates, and are bookable on the day. Anyone who is attending, who wishes to offer a workshop should send in details to the Admin Office for consideration, by 17 December 2009.

In addition to displays, we hope to offer the opportunity to view a range of merchandise during the weekend, which may be of interest to our members. The cost for table space will be £25 for a you are interested please contact the office for a booking form.

Some of the workshops which we have enjoyed previously include

- Fields and Circuits in Reiki – an experiential workshop
- Dowsing for Food Intolerances
- Healing with Crystals (things you may not know)
- Reiki and Reality – the spiritual path of Reiki
- Opening the Heart
